

Congress must focus on reforming the U.S. Sugar program. The 10th District is home to thousands of workers and small business owners whose family incomes are endangered by the U.S. sugar subsidy. Hundreds of millions of dollars of candies and confections help fuel our regional economy. That is why I founded the House Sugar Caucus to work with my colleagues toward reform. Check out this article in Bloomberg News to learn more...